

NO	HTTP	HTTPS
----	------	-------

1	1. No Encryption – Data is sent in plain text.	Encryption – Data is encrypted using SSL/TLS
2
3	2. Less Secure – Vulnerable to eavesdropping and data theft.	, making it difficult for attackers to read.
4
5
	3. Uses Port 80	More Secure – Protects
	4. No SSL/TLS Certificate Required	sensitive information like passwords and payment details.
	5. Browser Shows "Not Secure" for many HTTP sites.	Uses Port 443
		Requires an SSL/TLS Certificate to verify the website's identity.

		Browser Shows a Padlock Icon indicating a secure connection.